

A Winter's Talmud Tale

STORY GUIDE

1. What is something that was difficult for you but that you persevered and accomplished it? You may choose one of the examples given or think of one of your own.

Talmud Torah (Learning Torah)	Tikkun Olam (Repairing the World)	Kavod (Respect) for Family and Friends	Shleimut Enoshi (Human Perfection)
Preparing for Bar/Bat Mitzvah	Collecting Coats for a Coat Drive	Being an Upstander for Family/Friends	Mastering a Skill in Your Favorite Sport
Leading Part of the Passover Seder	Raising Money for a Food Pantry	Teaching a Life Skill to a Special Needs Sibling	Mastering a Difficult Piece of Music

Other: _____

2. Why was this important to you?

3. What was difficult about accomplishing it?

4. What did you need to do in order to accomplish your task? How did you persevere?

A Winter's Talmud Tale

5. How did you feel while you engaged in the activity?

6. What lesson did you learn that you want to share with others?

7. Does your story have a soundtrack? If so, what music will you use in your video? How does the music fit in with your story?

8. Do you need any props for your interview? If so, what are they?
